

I don't use the traffic and weather service very often, however, when I travel from New York to Florida I find it invaluable. Instantaneous and accurate weather and traffic information without having to search and WAIT for local stations to provide similar information.
Please let satellite radio continue to provide this valuable service.